From €80 a month.
A login for everyone.

You choose the modules, and we run the system on our servers in the European Union. The price depends on the modules and on your transactions a month, never on logins. In Self-build you make the changes. In Managed our Project Engineer makes them.

In Managed, the refund is a clause

- What is promised: when the move is done, your team works a real day inside the system, on your data, doing the work named in the signed scope.
- Who decides: you do, against that scope document and nothing else.
- If it is no: everything you have paid returns in full within fourteen days; you keep an export of your data and your requirements.

Your data and your way out

- Your data at any time, in open formats, free
- 90 days to take it out after the agreement ends, then deletion and a signed certificate. No switching fees.
- A licence to run the system on your own server, at a price fixed today: 36 months of your monthly price, at least €100,000

Compare with the quote on your desk: published guides put a seat-priced suite for forty people at €20,000 to €125,000 to implement, then a partner every year, and the licence line grows every time you hire.
